DIED OF OLD AGE.

Death of Mrs. Alexander Campbell at Bethany.

NEARLY FIVE SCORE OF YEARS

Have Passed Since She was Born in Leitchfield, England—Seventy Years Ago She Married Alexander Campbell, Bishop of the Christian (Disciples) Church—She Has Lived Quietly at Her Home in Classic Bethany for Many Years.

Yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock, at the Campbell home in Bethany, occurred the death of Mrs. Selma Huntington Blackwell Campbell, widow of the great Alexander Campbell, many years deceased, who was known throughout the country as a most eloquent divine and bishop of the Christian (Disciples) church. Mrs. Campbell has been failing in health for some time, owing to her extreme old age, and her demise was not unexpected.

She was born in Leitchfield, England, on November 12, 1802, and came to the United States when a small child; was married to Alexander Campbell in 1828, and for sixty-nine years, has lived almost continuously at the beloved and consecrated home to which he brought her as a bride. In her own character and life, she was as remarkable as her illustrious husband, a most fit and companion and helpmate for him, in the important and arduous undertakings of his life. She was one of the most pre-eminent pious women, the world has ever known, beloved and revered by all who knew her, and has bequeathed a precious memory of unselfish love and untiring Christian devotion to the church, her family, the four living children—two sons and two daughters—numerous grand-children, relatives and friends.

The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, from the family home in Bethany. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

Base ball this afternoon, Wheeling vs. Fort Wayne.

Thomas Crawford, colored, charged with disturbance of the peace, was dismissed yesterday by Squire Fitzpatrick.

Water rents must be paid on or before tomorrow to save the discount. The water board's office is open until 8 o'clock p. m.

The work building on South Eoff street is nearing completion. This will be one of the handsomest business houses on the South Side.

Mrs. M. L. Wells, the lecturer of Chattanooga, Tenn., will make an address at the Thomson M. E. church, Island, on Wednesday evening.

The colored Baptists of Ebenezer Baptist church, who worship in Market hall, had a very successful rally Sunday, raising the sum of $76.67, for which they thank the public.

Lizzie Connors gave $100 bond to keep the peace, yesterday in Squire Fitzpatrick's court, upon complaint of Mrs. Gubhardt. Both are South Siders, and jealousy seems to have been the root of the evil.

The American (Bell) Telephone Company has opened its long distance service in Charleston. Lines have also been extended to Benwood, in the Monroe county (Ohio) oil field, and to Woodsfield, that county's court house.

An outbuilding of the Central Garden club house, on the hillside, in the Fifth ward, was burned last night. It created quite a blaze but the damage was slight. The firemen had difficulty in reaching the scene, owing to the steep hillside.

Squire Fitzpatrick decided in favor of the city in the case of the city of Wheeling vs. Michael Collins yesterday for $9.75, the full amount. The case grew out of the expense incurred by the city in testing the gas pipes in the residence of the defendant.

The case of J. W. Crawford, the Register reporter, vs. H. E. Hillman, the jeweler, against the withholding of the former's letter by the latter, was compromised before Squire Fitzpatrick yesterday by the defendant paying the costs and attorneys' fees.

Annie Jones, colored, assaulted Annie Coleman, white, in the Fourth ward Sunday, using a club for effect. She failed to remit her tax of $5 and costs before Squire Fitzpatrick yesterday, going to jail in lieu thereof. She was gloriously drunk. Upon a counter charge, Annie Coleman was taxed the same fine, which she paid.

Along the Landing.

The marks at 6 p. m. showed 3 feet 9 inches and falling. Weather, cloudy and cold.

Captain E. J. Carpenter, superintendent of dredging on the Ohio river, reports that he is making rapid progress in removing the bar at Guyan. He does not know how long it will take to complete the undertaking, but he has begun, but when it is finished the dredges will be moved to Cairo.

It is conceded by almost every one that the Virginia is the smoothest running boat that ever came up the Ohio river. The Queen City is a good second. Some persons like the cabin of the Virginia better than that of the Queen City, but the majority of persons of whom seem to favor that of the Queen City.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

The enterprising Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Line is getting out a souvenir book which will far surpass any of its former ones. A great number of new picturesque views of the Ohio River, as well as a number of handsome views of the exterior and interior of the new steamer Queen City, will be shown by full page engravings on fine paper. The book will be a souvenir in itself. Superintendent Ellison says it will be ready for distribution in about two weeks.

The Ohio and Lake Erie ship canal report is to be printed. The Provisional committee has paid all its bills, and there is a balance on hand sufficient to publish about 5,000 copies of the report and to prepare for pushing the project before the next regular session of Congress. The report will cover from two hundred to three hundred pages, and contain about thirty illustrations of the commerce of Pittsburgh harbor, together with commercial, topographical and location maps and profiles. The book will be edited by the secretary, Mr. John E. Shaw, and will be ready for issue in about two months.

The River at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, June 28.—The Ohio River continues to fall, but the packets are running with wonderful regularity for the stage of water existing at present. The lowest boat Resche, which stuck here and tow Friday at the head of Duff's bar near Dixmont, is still there, and she cannot be floated until there is a rise. The pool above the Davis island dam is not yet full, and as soon as the Keystone State gets away this evening all the needles will be placed between the wheels at the dam. This will likely cause the river to fall to about three feet below the dam, but as soon as the pool above is filled the river will commence to rise. Packet men just at present are hoping for rain, but it will take a heavy down-pour to bring the river up to a good navigable stage. There is still enough water, however, to enable the packets to navigate.

May Go to the Bank.

The predicted suspension of navigation by the big packets appears to be at hand. The river at this port last night showed only 3 feet 9 inches, on which it will not be possible for the Queen City to go through to Pittsburgh this morning. She is due here from below at 3 a. m. today, and will probably remain at the Wheeling wharf until Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, when she is due to pass down for Cincinnati. No official announcement had been made last night but this is probably what will be done. The Keystone State is due here early this morning from Pittsburgh for Cincinnati, but at an early hour she had not arrived. If the river continues to fall navigation by the Ben Hur, Kanawha, Lorens, H. K. Bedford and other medium draft boats will be interfered with.

FOREIGN MISSIONS MEETING.

Convention of the Steubenville District Society Opens at Martin's Ferry.

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Steubenville district, East Ohio conference, opened in the Martin's Ferry M. E. church last night at 8 o'clock with a fair attendance. Mrs. R. S. Strahl, the district president, presided.

The convention was opened with the singing of a hymn by the choir. Misses Edith McKim and Laura Hopkins presided at the organ during the evening.

The opening prayer was by Mrs. Brown and the scripture lesson by Mrs. Eskey. An anthem was sung by a quartette consisting of Miss Laura Hopkins, Mrs. George Robertson, Stephen Houghton and M. E. Cole.

The pastoral greeting by Rev. Dr. J. W. Johns occupied about ten minutes, and this pleased all who heard him. He told of the work of the ladies and the number interested, said the organization had been maintained for over half a century, and told the ladies that the best people of Martin's Ferry were theirs. Dr. Johns in talk stated that Belmont county is a historic spot, having sent Sister Thoburn, the first missionary, and also Bishop Thoburn.

Mrs. J. R. Mills, of Geneva, O., who is the conference secretary, gave an address on "What of the Night?" and it was very interesting throughout. She told in detail of the work being accomplished by the organization. She said: "If you could read the appeals that come to me you would appreciate the extent of the work. In one quarter a district was $500 short of meeting the expenses and this was raised in five minutes among those present at the meeting. New doors are opening; new voices are calling us. Missionaries are giving up the work and missionaries are doing double work. Bessie Hoge, of Bellaire, is in the famine district of India and doing noble work. She wrote that she was taking care of one hundred starving girls on an allowance for forty-five, and asked what she should do, saying, 'Another missionary told of two little girls who lay on the roadside dying from hunger. Miss Means tells us of the poor girls who are slaves. The work is progressing well in China, Japan, Mexico and the islands of the sea. Some say, "Why don't you work in America?" Are we not trying to have the gospel preached to all in this country? In our work, 149 missionaries are represented, and these deserve our support, our love and our prayers."

The address of Miss Mills was followed by the singing of a selection by a quartette consisting of George Hopkins, Stephen Houghton, M. E. Cole and Jess Hopkins.

The benediction was by Rev. Edgar G. Bailey, and this was followed by a social reunion. The church is beautifully decorated with flowers and plants and the word "Welcome" appears on the wall in the rear of the pulpit. The delegates and others present last night were much pleased with the music. Three sessions will be held to-day, commencing at 9 a. m., 1:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., and interesting programmes have been prepared for each. Rev. Dr. H. S. Jackson, Rev. Dr. W. F. Oldham and others will take part. The different denominations in Martin's Ferry will be represented this afternoon.

A MEETING of the committee appointed in September last by the several regiments and commanderies to fix the date and place of meeting the coming fall, are called to meet in the parlor of the Stamm House, this (Tuesday) at 2 p. m. The commands interested in the committee meeting are the First, Twelfth and Fifteenth Regiments Infantry, First Cavalry and Batteries D and H. The opinion prevails among the old soldiers that the re-union should be held at Columbus at time of the reunion of the Society of the Army of West Virginia, and it is probable that will be the time and place selected.
